

York Lodge Guesthouse

WELCOME TO YORK LODGE GUEST HOUSE

York Lodge is a lovingly restored Victorian Residence with its own charm and where the atmosphere is one of modern facilities and restful comfort. The Lodge is now managed by the owner Tony Macphail with the emphasis being on friendliness, cleanliness and informality. It is Tony's mission to see that you enjoy your stay at the Lodge.

York Lodge is situated less than ten minutes walk from the city centre so you are surrounded by York's tourist attractions, restaurants and pubs.

Fresh flowers, and many personal touches make York Lodge the perfect place to relax and unwind after a days sightseeing, a real home from home.

All rooms are spacious and include full central heating, en-suite bathroom facilities, hairdryers, alarm clocks and Freeview flatscreen TV's! tea/coffee making facilities plus a range of beverages on your hospitality tray including sweets and biscuits compliments of the Lodge. Free Wi Fi is also available throughout the Lodge.

A freshly prepared breakfast menu is served in our comfortable dining room each morning, where you are invited to start your day in comfort and a relaxed atmosphere. There is visitor information and guide books available to guests, and Tony is delighted to provide further information and advice on 'where to go' and 'what to see' in York and the surrounding areas.
